Tiivistelmä englanniksi

It's turbulent times for the celebrity church Hillsong. It's been revealed high-profile leader Brian Houston, who founded the hugely successful organisation, has now stepped down from the its multiple boards. He faces court next month accused of concealing child sexual abuse, a charge he denies. Now though, we reveal more damaging accusations about the church - two brave women who say they were violated by other Hillsong members. But what makes these attacks even more disturbing is the megachurch's response -- an indifference to their suffering so heartless it would surely make Jesus weep.
